

Notice of Right to Cancel Contract

Contracts made away from IBB premises and where the solicitor and client are not face to face.

This Notice has been given to you because you have entered into a contract with us governed by the Consumer Contracts (Information, Cancellation and Additional Charges) Regulations 2013 ('the Regulations'). The contract is for the supply of legal services. The organisation providing the legal services is referred to in the Regulations as 'the trader'.

The identity of the trader providing legal services under this contract is Iiffes Booth Bennett (IBB Solicitors).

Under the Regulations, you have the right to cancel this contract if you wish to do so. This Notice explains how to exercise this right. It also gives you other information that is required by the Regulations.

In order to exercise your right to cancel the contract, you need to deliver or send us a cancellation notice. This means that you need to write to us confirming that you wish to cancel the contract. You can use the cancellation form provided below at the end of this Notice if you wish. If you prefer, you can send your notification to us by email or by fax.

Any cancellation notice should be delivered or sent to:

To: Joanna DeBiase of IBB Solicitors

At: Capital Court, 30 Windsor Street, Uxbridge, Middlesex, UB8 1AB

You have 14 days in which to serve a cancellation notice. The period of 14 days begins with the date when you receive this Notice. This 14 day period is referred to in the Regulations as 'the cancellation period'. Under the Regulations, a cancellation notice is treated as being served as soon as it is sent or posted to the trader – in this case IBB Solicitors. A cancellation notice sent by electronic communication is treated as being served from the day when it is sent to the trader (IBB Solicitors).

Urgent Instructions

If you agree in writing that the performance of this contract should begin before the end of the cancellation period, then even if you cancel the contract you may still be required to pay for goods or services supplied before the cancellation.

If you enter into a related credit agreement, then that agreement will be automatically cancelled if the contract is cancelled. A 'related credit agreement' means an agreement under which fixed sum credit which fully or partly covers the price under the contract is granted to you by the trader or by another person under an arrangement made between that person and the trader.

The reference number, code or other details to enable the contract to be identified is our reference found at the top of our letters to you.
